

Lunch honors Best Dressed Hall of Famers

By Joy Sewing
March 10, 2017

Photo: Priscilla Dickson

IMAGE 1 OF 13
Sheridan Williams, from left, Melinda Berkman and Carol Linn

In celebration of the upcoming 35th anniversary, the Houston Chronicle Best Dressed Hall of Famers were honored at an intimate luncheon at Neiman Marcus.

Lynn Wyatt, who was the first woman named to the Hall of Fame, welcomed the well-heeled crowd, who looked as stunning as ever.

The Best Dressed Luncheon and Neiman Marcus Fashion Presentation benefitting March of Dimes will be March 23 at the downtown Marriott Marquis Houston. The Women's Hospital is the event's emerald sponsor.

Chairs Isabel David and Kristy Bradshaw talked about the March of Dimes' great work and introduced Laura Ryan, who gave a poignant speech about how MOD has impacted her family. Luncheon guests then were treated to a fashion preview of Brunello Cucinelli's spring collection. The upcoming luncheon will include his fall line.

Hall of fame guests included Sheridan Williams, Clayton Erickson, Melinda Berkman, Phoebe Tudor, Cynthia Petrello, Anita Smith, Rosemary Schatzman, Pat Breen, Danielle Ellis, Jeanie Kilroy Wilson, Yvonne Cormier and newly minted Hall of Famers Lisa Holthouse, Carol Linn and Gina Gaston Elie

This year's raffle prizes are: the "Giorgetti Experience" package, which includes two roundtrip tickets to Milan, private round-trip ground transportation, two-night accommodations in Milan, Italy; dinner hosted by Giorgetti and an iconic Progetti chair in saddle leather, donated by Giorgetti and Internum Houston; a $5,000 shopping spree at Neiman Marcus Galleria; valet parking for one year at Neiman Marcus Galleria; sunglasses of the seasons (four pairs) from Neiman's; lunch for 30 at Mariposa Restaurant at Neiman's; a private dinner for 10 people at La Table at chef's table featuring a five-course prix fixe; two one-night weekend stays at Marriott Marquis Houston; and a six-month package from DEFINE Body & Mind.

Raffle tickets are $50 each or $250 for six.

To purchase raffle or luncheon tickets, visit marchofdimes.org/bestdressed